Class 04

Chapter 2-Sensitivity towards Others

Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs)

1. Who was making a painting at the beginning of the story?

a) Usha

b) Meena

c) Anand

d) Neeta

2. For whom was the special painting being made?

a) Anand's sister

b) A classmate's little sister

c) Neeta’s grandfather

d) Vasudha

3. The "special child" in the story was unable to:

a) Read and write

b) Paint and draw

c) Walk, speak, or hear

d) See or touch

4. How did the little girl convey her happiness?

a) By shouting

b) By smiling or clapping

c) By painting

d) By speaking

5. Meena’s eyes filled with tears because:

a) She was sad about the little girl

b) Anand lost his toys

c) She was proud of Anand's concern for others □

d) Usha was crying

6. An organized group of people is called a:

a) Family

b) Team

c) Society □

d) Class

7. Neeta lives in a ___ family.

a) Nuclear

b) Joint □

c) Small

d) Single-parent

8. Why does Neeta play quietly when her grandfather rests?

a) She is scared of him

b) She is bored

c) She is sensitive to his comfort □

d) She is punished

9. What is Vasudha’s profession?

a) Bank officer

b) Teacher

c) Fashion designer

d) Doctor

10. Who does Vasudha bathe and feed every morning?

a) Her children

b) Her grandmother, Shanti Anand

c) Her father

d) Her pets

11. Children develop a caring attitude by watching their:

a) Television

b) Parents and other people

c) Toys

d) Drawings

12. People who cannot hear are referred to as:

a) Hearing impaired

b) Visually impaired

c) Orthopedically challenged

d) Lazy

13. Which language is used by people who are hearing impaired?

a) Braille

b) Spanish

c) Sign language

d) Latin

14. Who was the first teacher to teach hearing impaired students in the 1600s?

a) Louis Braille

b) Pedro de Ponce

c) Juan Paulo Bonet

d) Shanti Anand

15. Visually impaired people use their sense of ___ to read.

a) Smell

b) Hearing

c) Touch

d) Taste

16. The script used by blind people for reading is called:

a) Sign language

b) Braille

c) Morse code

d) Cursive

17. Braille script consists of rows of:

a) Painted lines

b) Metal letters

c) Raised dots

d) Deep holes

18. Who invented the Braille script?

a) Juan Paulo Bonet

b) Meena

c) Louis Braille

d) Pedro de Ponce

19. What does meditation help develop?

a) Physical strength

b) Ability to handle stress

c) Better eyesight

d) Hearing skills

20. According to the text, good citizens are made at:

a) School

b) The park

c) Home

d) The office

Fill in the blanks:

1) Anand's classmate's little sister was a special child.
2) The little girl was unable to walk, speak, or hear but conveyed her happiness by smiling or clapping.
3) A society is an organised group of people.
4) Meena felt proud of her son for his concern for the special girl.
5) In a society, all of us depend upon one another for different reasons.
6) Most people are sensitive to the needs of others.
7) Children develop a caring attitude by watching their parents and other people around them.
8) Neeta lives in a joint family where everyone cares for the comfort of others.
9) Vasudha is a successful fashion designer.
10) Shanti Anand is Vasudha's grandmother.
11) Many old people become hard of hearing and cannot see properly.

12) Sign language is an organised system of gestures or mime used in place of speech.

13) Anjali was born deaf, meaning she cannot hear noises or people talking.

14) The vibrations of loud sounds can disturb a person using a hearing aid.

15) Pedro de Ponce, a Spanish monk, became the first teacher to teach hearing-impaired students.

16) The visually impaired people use their sense of touch to read and anticipate.

17) Books for the blind are written in Braille, which has rows of raised dots.

18) Louis Braille invented the Braille script after losing his eyesight in an accident.

19) Hearing-impaired or visually impaired children deserve our understanding and not pity.

20) Good citizens are, after all, made at home!