HANDOUTS (CHAPTER -4).

Class -V. Subject- SCIENCE

Multiple Choice Questions (MCQS)

1.What are horses and oxen primarily classified as when used to draw wagons and carts?

A) Companion animals. B) Draught animals. C) Extinct animals. D) Wildlife

Answer: B

2.Which animal provides both silk and the material used for making woollen clothes?

A) Sheep and Silkworm respectively. B) Goat and Buffalo respectively

C) Silkworm and Sheep respectively. D) Oyster and Silk moth respectively

Answer: C

3.Pearls, which are frequently used as jewellery, are obtained from which organism?

A) Crabs. B) Oysters. C) Lobsters. D) Prawns

Answer: B

4.In ancient times, what primary role did dogs play for kings in the forests?

A) Drawing royal carts. B) Assisting in hunting.

C) Guarding palace gates. D) Searching for lost treasure

Answer: B

5.Which of the following is an example of an animal waste that can be converted into fertile compost?

A) Elephant tusks. B) Cowdung. C) Tiger claws. D) Snake skin

Answer: B

6.What term refers to all those plants and animals that live and grow in their natural surroundings?

A) Domestic animals. B) Wildlife C) Extinct species. D) Pet organisms

Answer: B

7.Animals like the Tasmanian tiger, quagga, and passenger pigeon share what status?

A) Endangered. B) Domesticated. C) Extinct. D) Protected

Answer: C

8.Which animal is listed in the text as an endangered species currently in danger of becoming extinct?

A) Caribbean monk seal. B) Golden toad. C) Bactrian camel. D) Quagga

Answer: C

9.Where is Masai Mara, one of the world's most famous Wildlife Sanctuaries, located?

A) India. B) North America. C) Kenya. D) South America

Answer: C

10.Elephants are illegally hunted and poached primarily for which body part?

A) Horns B) Tusks. C) Bladders. D) Skins

Answer: B

11.Rhinoceroses are slaughtered to turn their horns into what product?

A) Jewellery pieces. B) Powder form to make medicines

C) Decorative walls. D) Expensive perfumes

Answer: B

12.Why is the musk deer facing the threat of becoming extinct?

A)It is hunted to obtain Kasturi for perfumes.

B)Its bones are used for making jewellery.

C)Its legs are consumed as a delicacy.

D)Its hair yields expensive wool.

Answer: A

13.Which expensive variety of wool is yielded by the hair of the mountain goat?

A) Silk. B) Pashmina. C) Caviar. D) Leather

Answer: B

14.Why are millions of frogs consumed each year, leading to an increase in the insect population?

A)Their skins are used to decorate wall.

B) Their legs are considered a 'delicacy' to eat.

C) Their eggs are used to make caviar.

D) Their claws are worn as good luck charms.

Answer: B

15.What is 'Caviar' made from?

A) The hair of mountain goats. B) The skin of goats and buffaloes

C) The unfertilised eggs of a variety of fish. D) The fluid of the musk deer

Answer: C

16?In what year did the Government of India enact the Wildlife (Protection) Act?

A) 2003. B) 1972 C) 1947. D) 2026

Answer: B

17.What happens if we destroy just one link in a food chain?

A)Only that specific animal benefits.

B)We might end up destroying the whole food chain.

C)The green plants will stop growing.

D)The food web becomes stronger.

Answer: B

18.An interconnected system of multiple food chains forms what?

A) A natural sanctuary. B) An animal rescue organisation

C) A food web. D) A wildlife trade market

Answer: C

19.What danger do stray cattle face if polythene bags are carelessly thrown into the garbage?

A) They lose their natural habitations. B) They may swallow them and die.

C) Their lifespan is reduced by cages. D) They run away to the forests.

Answer: B

20.What does the acronym PETA stand for?

A)Protection of Endangered Tigers and Animals

B)People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals

C)Preservation of Environment and Total Animals

D)Public Enforcement for Tiger Act

Answer: B

Fill in the Blanks

1.Leather, used to make shoes, purses, and bags, is obtained from the skin of animals like goat, sheep, and _____.

2.Animals like horses, camels, and elephants are used as means of _____.

3.Today, dogs assist _____ in various search operations.

4.Animal waste, like cowdung, is converted to _____ to make soil fertile for the growth of plants.

5.Wildlife is found everywhere—in plains, rivers, mountains, seas, _____, and deserts.

6._____ animals are those animal species which are no longer living on Earth.

7.The Golden toad and the passenger pigeon are examples of _____ animals.

8.Animals that face the danger of becoming extinct are known as _____ animals.

9.Illegal hunting and poaching activities of wild animals for their body parts is known as _____ trade.

10.North and South American bears are being killed for their gall _____, which are smuggled to make medicines.

11.The skins of tigers are used to decorate _____ by hunters.

12.Tiger claws and teeth are worn as jewelry by many superstitious persons who think these can bring them _____.

13.Due to the drop in frog populations caused by hunting, the _____ population has seen an increase.

14.The Wildlife (Protection) Act of India was heavily amended in January, _____ to make punishments and penalties more stringent.

15.A food chain is a process of "who _____ whom".

16.In the provided simple food chain example: leaves ----} caterpillar ----} frog -----} snake ------}_____.

17.Putting birds in cages and fish in aquariums reduces their _____.

18.When visiting a forest, park, or garden, one should not remove _____ of birds from their nests.

19.To help birds quench their thirst during summers, we should put some water in an _____ bowl and keep it outside.

20.PETA's slogan states that “animals are not for us to eat, wear, experiment on, or use for _____.

Answers

1.buffalo. 2.transport. 3.police. 4.compost. 5.rainforests.
6.Extinct. 7.extinct. 8.endangered. 9.wildli 10.bladders.
11.walls. 12.good luck. 13.insect. 14.2003. 15.eats. 16.owl

17.life span. 18.eggs. 19.earthen. 20.entertainment